INSIDIEWEDDINGS

Traditionally modern

SERENA GUPTA & DAYAN GANDHI
DECEMBER 29, 2006 - JANUARY 5, 2007
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA
PHOTOGRAPHED BY JOHN & ELIZABETH SOLANO

For high school sweethearts Serena Gupta and Dayan Gandhi, marrying in traditional Indian splendor was their dream. "We had always wanted a big, traditional Indian wedding with all of the festivities and rituals that accompany it," explains Serena. But, according to the bride, it was equally important that certain updates be made to these celebrations to reflect the contemporary tastes the couple shares as a result of being raised in the United States. With five different events set to take place over a weeklong period, there were plenty of opportunities to incorporate their vibrant personalities and modern lifestyles into the extended celebration. The couple enlisted the help of both Square Root Designs and Nikki Khan of Exquisite Events to keep the copious décor and organizational details in check.
